

The Dragonette 1938

Dragonette

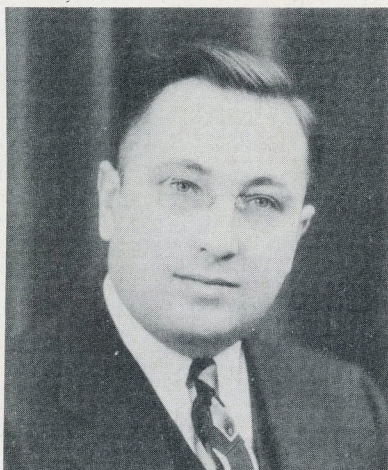

*As the cowboy sits and gazes
Into the fire so bright
While pictures of his childhood
Appear and go from sight,*

*So on your travel through these pages
Of this ne'er to be forgotten book
May your happy childhood memories
Be recalled as you look.*

*May you always remember Superior
As you travel on pathways higher
For someday perhaps as the Cowboy
You'll see memories in the fire.*

*Farewell to the fairest corral of all,
And to the cowboys short and tall.
The oldest group will soon depart
With thoughts of sadness in their hearts.*

*Thoughts of the yearlings just beginning,
Make us know they will come up winning,
Managers, too, of this fair rancho,
Will feel lost without us, we all know.*

*So goodbye to all, the Seniors will say
When graduation day comes on the 26th of May.
We'll leave you fondest memories, we hope
All of which in this annual we rope.*
